WELCOME & APOLOGIES

Apologies were received from Pauline, Bruce, Erik & Monica, Helen, Peter & Rick.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Today was a little bit of a Clayton's Changeover (the changeover you have when you're not having a changeover).

This was inspired by the realisation that Rotary has a long history of changing presidents annually. With that comes a fresh set of eyes, small changes in focus, some new initiatives, whilst continuing to build on our successful projects and programs.

The new President of Rotary International, Gordon McInally expressed this beautifully when he said:

"Rotary should celebrate our successes, including:

Pushing polio eradication to the finish line

Prioritising mental health

Fostering Peace

Creating a welcoming and inclusive club experience"

And

"Imagine Rotary afresh as we work together to Create Hope in the World"

Our club has a strong foothold and contribution to the above successes.

And whilst there may not have been the usual change of names at our "Changeover" – there is a commitment to review all the ways that we can make the Magill Sunrise Rotary club even better.

We're re-freshed; we're keen; and definitely ready for more fun.

Cheers,

Lindsay

GROUNDHOG DAY

A long standing tradition in the Rotary Club of Magill Sunrise is for the President to wear a symbolic hat – typically something that reflects their style, personality or the circumstances.

Your 2023-2024 President is now the proud owner of a 'Groundhog Day' hat.

Whilst the movie portrayed someone in a time-loop where the day keeps repeating until he gets it right - our (continuing) club President insists there is no time-loop in

Magill Sunrise Rotary – it's onwards and upwards.

QUIZ QUESTION

What is Prince Harry's full name?

We received many very funny responses to this question, which I will not list in fear of upsetting our true royalists.

ANSWER: Prince Henry Charles Albert David, Duke of Sussex, Earl of Dumbarton, Baron Kilkeel.

ICE BREAKER

The University of Adelaide and the University of South Australia have agreed to merge, creating a super university that will be one of the largest tertiary education providers in the country. Do you believe the university merger is in the interests of the South Australian economy and welfare of the state? (Additional stats were provided).

Responses: This topic brought lots of discussion around the impacts of mergers even though there will be new jobs created, there is always a fall out of management jobs to try and create efficiency; money put into research doesn't always attract the best of the best; the number of international students coming to Australia was impacted by COVID, however a large number of international students do return home after studying in Aus, so the concept can be flawed and the impact may include selling off excess university properties.

It was a good discussion and most agreed that it is a good concept.

PRESIDENT'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Rita (aka Andy MacDowell) from Groundhog Day, the movie:

"Sometimes I wish I had a thousand lifetimes. I don't know, Phil. Maybe it's not a curse."

MAGILL SUNRISE MARKET BENEFICIARY - NEW DAWN

Funds from the Magill Sunrise Market in July will be donated to our humanitarian aid project in Ukraine.

The funding from Rotary Clubs in South Australia has enabled "New Dawn" volunteers to setup a modular Medical Centre in a town northeast of Kherson. The location was identified by local health authorities after the previous regional hospital was destroyed.

We will now be funding a hub of three Medical Centres to service the 10,000 population in this region.

The project team has also secured a Grant from Rotary International for Ukraine. This grant will help us establish a number of smaller aid projects in Odesa and the regional villages.

Thank you to everyone who attended and helped at the Magill Sunrise Market in July – and to District Chair Tim Mee for updates on the project. Remember, you can still make tax deductible donations to Rotary Australia World Community Service Project: 58 -2022-23 < donation link here >.

Magill Sunrise Market Helpers

The success of July's Magill Sunrise Market (despite the atrocious weather) reminded us how lucky we are to have such committed club members, dedicated honorary members, steadfast partners and willing volunteers.

A special thanks to 1st time helpers Erik, Monica and Helen. And how good was it to see former members Peter and Rick (pictured) paying us a visit.

As stated, many times, the Market is run entirely by volunteers. We just happen to have volunteers of the highest standard – who REALLY enjoy the 'job'.
