

THE PERILS OF PAULINE

VOLUME 28 | ISSUE 08
1264 | 10 SEP 2024

Welcome to Jackson Pawelski, Molly Sweeney & Chris De La Rue

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I am going to use this part of the Bulletin to recognise and thank the awesome hard-working and dedicated members of the Rotary Club of Magill Sunrise.

When the public turn up to our monthly market the sausages are sizzling, the banners, signage and gazebos are up, and the BBQ area is all ready and waiting to turn out zucchini fritters or bacon and egg sandwiches.

Our members start preparing for the market on Saturday afternoon. There is bread, bacon, eggs and sausages to be bought, onions to be sliced and fritter batter to be made ready for an early start on Sunday morning. On Sunday it is all hands-on deck to make sure the market is a success, and everyone has a great time, and our cooks and servers keep you fed.

Then there is the behind-the-scenes people who book the stall holders during the week, the risk management officer who checks everything is safe, the person who meets and allocates a spot for the stall holders, the person who mixes the donut dough and those who make sure there is enough gas, drinks, ice creams or loo paper, you all have my grateful thanks.

Amongst this group, some who are still employed, attended a meeting one evening this week to discuss our International Project in Zimbabwe and lay the foundation for the way forward to reach our goal of building teacher accommodation at the Lirhanzo Children's Village. Thank you.

To Ian and Suzette for your work at Calperum and the weekends you spend there helping to improve the environment. Thank you to you both.

To Lindsay and Bet, thank you for all the hard work put into the "Lift the Lid Walk" and to Bet for selling raffle tickets in the cold.

I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to all members and our volunteers and also thank you for your phenomenal efforts in keeping us a valid and effective Rotary Club. Thank you, you all rock.

Pauline

GUEST SPEAKER: JACKSON PAWELSKI

President Pauline with Jackson

Our guest speaker this week was Jackson Pawelski, Youth Engagement Community Officer Scouts SA.

Jackson is one of the very few full-time paid employees of Scouts SA, having risen through the ranks from a 10-year-old cub, scout, adventurer and Queen's scout.

Jackson's journey began while he was playing, he found his dad's scout's uniform hidden in a cupboard and wanted to know more. Jackson described his journey in scouting as nothing outstanding, but just hanging in there and taking opportunities as they were presented.

He told us of some of the Jamboree weather disasters that made them more resilient; nothing goes to plan, so work your way around it.

In 2019 scouting in Australia made changes where 5 levels of scouting only had one program. Tests for elevation in the organisation are now set by individuals rather than having to fulfil criteria set by Scouts SA.

There are around 4,000 scouts in SA. Numbers have fallen, but it's no longer a revolving door and members stick.

In 2025 the 26th Australian Jamboree will be held in Maryborough, Queensland in January whilst the international jamboree will be at the Appalachian Experience in West Virginia, which will be a mega event.

Thank you, Jackson, for bringing us up to speed on Scouts SA.

Mark Thompson

PRESIDENT'S - "DID YOU KNOW?"

Eleven of the twelve people to walk on the moon were Scouts

After the attack on Pearl Harbour, Scouts rushed to the aid of those affected, administering first aid to those injured and were used to relay message by foot and on their bikes.

QUIZ QUESTION

Who am I/what am I best known for?

1. I was born on this day (10th September) in 1844 in England
2. My wife Elizabeth and I emigrated to Australia in 1865 and settled in Melbourne
3. I became an orchardist and started making and selling jams & pickles made with produce from my orchard under the "Rising Sun" brand
4. In 1889 I opened a factory in South Melbourne and in 1892 sent my first shipment of products to England with great results
5. By 1895 business had grown substantially and had also branched into confectionery, so the business moved into a new 5 story factory in South Melbourne
6. In 1909 I introduced milk chocolate products to my business
7. In 1910 I sold the jam and preserves side of the business to the Henry Jones Cooperative Ltd (IXL), but retained the confectionery business
8. In 1913 I moved to the Barrackville factory and started naming my products "Barrackville Cocoa and Chocolate" possibly countering Cadbury's famous Bourneville brand
9. When packing my chocolates I started inserting an unusual treat with them, but it was sticky and tended to absorb water from the air and stick to things, so in 1913 I decided to dip it in chocolate to overcome these issues. This became a new product in its own right
10. I was looking for a name for my new product and had come up with a simple name, but that name was trademarked so I decided to use my wife's favourite flower as the primary name
11. I died in 1918, but some of my 14 children continued to run the company
12. In 1960 a new product named Bertie Beetle was invented to use up the wasted material from production
13. In 1970 the company I founded was sold to a rival company, Rowntree, who were subsequently taken over by Nestle in 1989
14. In 2009 Nestle changed the shape of the bar to be wider and flatter, plus changed the formula so the main component would shatter into small pieces when bitten
15. The changes were disastrous, and the product popularity rapidly declined, so Nestle cancelled production in 2010
16. In 2012 a descendant of mine attempted to regain the name, recipe rights and equipment to start production again, but failed
17. In 2018 Robern Menz in Adelaide announced that they had secured the rights to the name, recipe and equipment and would begin production again
18. In 2019 my famous product re-appeared on the shelves of Australian supermarkets

Answer: I am Abel Hoadley, and the product is the Violet Crumble.

Lots of good guesses along the way, but Colin was the winner at question 10 and took home the chocolates – literally!

ICE BREAKER

In the wake of the now famous/infamous performance of RayGun at the Olympics, what sport or activity would be/could be in the Olympics that you would follow or like to participate in?

Responses:

Fortunately, everyone took this in the spirit of fun it was intended to be and suggestions included Solitaire, No-Blink Competition, Barista, Cocktail Making, Bull Running, Darts, Lawn Bowls, Rolling Down the Hill and Holding Your Breath.

Some exciting suggestions there, but not sure too many of them will be included anytime soon 😊
